Today’s Solutions for Tomorrow’s Issues

Times are changing, and you need to stay current on best practices to protect the privacy of your customers. Workplace laws change rapidly as technology, health care and telecommunications affect daily business routines and culture and communication trends. The NTCA 2014 Legal Seminar is where legal experts and telco executives get updates on federal and state regulations and laws, and how they affect telecommunications and general business practices.

Join your colleagues and peers for this annual event designed to help you navigate the complex world of law as it relates to the telco industry. Attendees can earn up to 12.5 continuing legal education credits, including three ethics credits.

Who Should Attend:
- Lawyers
- General managers
- Chief executive officers
- Owners
- Vice presidents
- Executive staff
